

Mazda MX-5 Cup Car Technical Service Bulletin #2022-07-19

Required: Idemitsu Engine Oil / Gear Oil

This TSB describes: The Idemitsu Engine Oil / Gear Oil is required to be utilized for the remainder of the 2022 season and all future Mazda MX-5 Cup race events. Mazda Motorsports is introducing Idemitsu fluids to the Mazda MX-5 Cup Series for VIR and all future race events.

Idemitsu Engine oil and Gear oil have been thoroughly tested and validated in lab via Idemitsu and Flis Performance (dyno testing) and on track in late 2021.

Mazda MX-5 Cup competitors are required to use the Idemitsu Engine and Gear oil as mandated in the homologation.

Order Process:

These Idemitsu racing fluids can be order through the Mazda Motorsports PARTS STORE like any other competition part. Both the Engine Oil and Gear Oil must be ordered in increments of (12), i.e., qty of 12, 24, 36 etc.... will only be accepted. When placing your first order, please verify that the address you want the fluids shipped to matches the address Mazda Motorsports has on file for Idemitsu oil shipments. You can do this by contacting Scott Kaluza 949-525-9440 or email skaluzam@mazdausa.com, EMAIL is preferred. All Idemitsu fluid orders go through a drop ship process which pulls from a specific shipping address spreadsheet. If a new address needs to be used for an Idemitsu fluid order, please contact Scott Kaluza as mentioned above to ensure the address is updated to the address spreadsheet.

Mazda MX-5 Cup Competitors: Flis Performance recommends teams to be proactive and order enough Idemitsu racing fluids prior to the VIR Mazda MX-5 Cup event to flush out any previously used Flis Performance fluids and prevent any contamination.

Note: Idemitsu racing fluids can only be purchased directly from Mazda Motorsports Parts Store. These Idemitsu fluids will not be available for purchase through Flis Performance.
